ELIZABETH OLSEN

A black and white portrait of actress Elizabeth Olsen. She has dark, curly hair with bangs and is looking directly at the camera. Her mouth is slightly open, revealing sharp, pointed teeth. She is holding a thin, light-colored object, possibly a toothpick or a small stick, in her mouth. Her hands are raised, with fingers spread, near her head. She is wearing a dark top with a light-colored, intricate pattern. The background is a plain, light color.

Marc Jacobs
CLASSIC ROYALTY: FASHION DESIGNER

Fictional characters inspire me. There are so many great characters in literature and film that I have fallen in love with, and who have inspired certain collections or looks. My favorite book of all time is The Great Gatsby, and I love Daisy Buchanan. I have a perfume named Daisy. It was actually named for my dog, who was named for Daisy Buchanan. I think we all kind of play fictional characters sometimes. It's easier than resembling living people.
