THE ESSENTIALS

Raffinati di natura

L'abc dello stile per spiriti liberi e weekend-addicted con la passione per la vita all'aria aperta. Ovvero: come godersi il relax e coltivare lo chic

A grandi passi: mettere le forme del futuro al servizio di una buona camminata. Nasce in questo mood la versione aggiornata delle sneakers Cloudbust di Prada, che con la nuova Thunder in knit diventano a effetto 3D, e con il vantaggio di una voluminosa suola in gomma leggera. Così grafica perfetta e tessuti tecnici si convertono in un mix di flessibilità e morbidezza. Da sperimentare anche sui terreni più impervi, per esplorare il bello e l'impossibile.

VETRINA

EROI DARK

Seguendo il filo rosso

Tutto nero ma con un particolare acceso (meglio se a contrasto). Slim. Un po' Men in black (appena tornati al cinema) ma nettamente più chic.

Giacca doppiopetto, 2.500 euro, camicia in cotone, 380 euro, e spilla in maglia, 370 euro, Prada.

CARDIGAN

This season, designers have taken inspiration from our grandparents: Gucci's big on florals and carpet prints, while Loewe presents eiderdown patches and loose knits. The fortunes of the cardigan have fluctuated since it was named after the seventh Earl of Cardigan who wore a knitted jacket leading the charge of The Light Brigade in 1854. In the Sixties, cool men wore them on the weekend instead of blazers, in the Seventies they were chunky and belted, and by the early Noughties they had been adopted by indie kids in skinny jeans and Converse. Today, the cardigan is best as a layer — over something simple for contrast, or over a suit, to unnerve. French label Ami layers them between neck-tied shirts and dramatic overcoats, while Miuccia Prada styles hers over classic tailoring. CT Red mohair-wool cardigan, £585, by PRADA
